A Brilliant Surprise Dinner. HORSVIH, ILI , March 24, 1890 On Wednesday last Mrs Jacob Hanes was in lied to Decatur to spend a few days with Mrs would arrange for her return but she had no sooner left her home than her daughters, Effie and I illian, began to make preparations for her name coming. A large number of invitations were sent out to her many friends requesting them to call on Monday, March 24, which was Mrs H a birthday The countersign was muri, o that Mrs. H. had not the alightest knowledge of the arrangements that had been made until she arrived home when she found her elegant mansion in possession of about 40 couples, most of whom were like herself in muidle life. The uri rise was genuine and complete, and some ears had to be brushed away before she could cel that she was really at home. She then gave to everyone thearty welcome At precisely 1, o clock dinner was announced. It would be impossible to give a description of the dinner suf-fice it to say, we have never seen it excelled either as to quality or quantity, and during the time there was a degree of sociability among al that is seldom witnessed. The dinner with at assisted by their brothers, Arthur, Harold and Chaster all of whom their parents may well be proud. The afternoon was delightfully spent in social converse and music both vocal and in strumental. Wrs. Hancs received many hand some presents which will serve as somemrs of the occasion. At four o clock the gueste gave their good bys, wishing Mrs. H. many happy re turns of the same event. Among the guest-wete Mr and Mrs Wm Ritchie, Mr and Mrs I N Childs, Mr and Mrs A Dillinger, Mr and Mrs J Conley Mr and Mrs I Wikoff Mr and Mrs H Peverly Mr and Mrs Edward Foulk Mr and Mrs Martin Albert, Mr and Mrs Jo Arthur, Mr and Mrs A G Benton, Mr and Mrs David Shrull, Mr and Mrs H C Mowry and Mrs M Humphreys Mr. and Mrs Dick Gulick, Mr. and Mrs. Stoutenborough, Mr. eaver, Mr and Mrs Shirk, Mr and Mrs Geo Wester, Mr and Mrs Frank Albert, Mr and Mrs Geo Allen Mr and Mrs Frank Albert, Mr and Mrs I Allen, Mrs Jas Arthur and daughters, of Occalur, Misses Msry Alber Feart Weaver Bellin, Celia, Hildred, Johnnie and Howard Arthur Regrets were received from Mr and Mrs White, of Warrensburg Mr and Mrs II Martin and Mr and Mrs Charles Ruehl, of Forsyth

B. B. B tones to natural action the glands whose function it is to collect and throw off impurities and waste mat-ter, and it never fails to cure even chronic disorders of the blood. Repeated tests with uniform success prove this fact During ten years suffering with erisipelas I took doctor's medicine and almost all kinds of patent medicines without benefit. Now, after having taken four bottles of B B B. I think myself entirely cured. MRS J M. VALLY, "Service, Pa.

When you find what you want it is the action of the Republican township convention.

When you are what you want it is always in the last place you look—for there you quit searching. B. B. B. ends the search for a perfect blood remedy. Try it first and you will look no further.

A FEW days since the New York World asserted that the assessed value of prop erty in Connecticut fell from $341,256, 976, in 1860, to $327,117,385, in 1880. The official figures show that in 1860 the asseesed valuation of that state was $254,-742, +95, and $332,170,856 in 1880—a gain of $81,000,000. PRIMARIES TO-NIGHT.

-Places of Meeting. The Republicans of this township will hold primary meetings this evening in the various districts and elect delegates to the convention to be held Friday night. The places of meeting this evening are as follows:

A Murder Trial.

The case of the People vs. James Walfron came up for trial in the circuit court st Clicton at ten o'clock to day. The prisoner is charged with the murder of Daniel B. Lindley, Both men lived at Kenney last August, when Waldron in a fit of jealousy killed Lindley. The deense is represented by Judge Ingham and William Fuller. The People are represented by Col. Pash Warner and State's Attorney Booth.

The Finest Yet. The firm of George W. Ehrhart & Co. o-day placed in their store a carload of the famed Port Limon bananas, which are confessedly the finest fruit produced in Florida. They are cultivated bananas, all others growing wild, and each bunch is the largest and most perfect ever seen in Decatur. This makes 30 carloads of fruit the firm has received, and this sam-ments these hustling merchants will receive from Florida during the remainder of the year. Preaching To-Night at the Baptist church by the pastor, Rev Dr. Vosburgh, at the close of which ten converts will be baptized. It is requested that all who have signed cards for this church will be present this evening to be examined by the board of deacers, at 7 o'clock. Preaching will be in the main audience room at 7:30. Deacon's meetng in the chapel.

E. F. Drobisch tied his rig last night to the hitching post in front of Justice Provest's home, corner of Marietta and Church street, and while absent the horse became badly tangled in the harness, and after several attempts to free himself, upset the cart and so fell that the straps tightened about the colt's neck and would have choked him to death had it not been for passersby who liberated the animal, In tying an animal greater care should be taken and then these accidents would not happen. Experience is a good teacher.

Notice to W. C. T. U.

A forfeiture was taken on his cash bond of $500 and the money was placed in the hands of State's Attorney Mills. It was not expected that Hurley would return. Detective Ballard says he will have Ilurley indicated and catch him some day. dicted and catch him some day,

SPEAKING of the progress of the Rev B. Fay Mills revival at Jacksonville the Journal says: "On Sunday alone there were 120 who made a profession of faith. The record of conversions at the close of the Sunday night meeting was 137. Last night at least 25 more declared them-selves willing to become christians," The aggregate falls short of the number ob-tained in Decatur in the same time.

John McDonald, aged 58 years, died yesterday at 1128 East Marietta street. The deceased, who was a veteran of a Massachusetta regiment, had been in the employ of the Wabash, and had contractad a severe case of the grip. He was a charge at the Springfield hospital, and came back. He was violently insane for awhile. He leaves a widow and four children. The funeral will take place te-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Catholic church

In Custody.

Stella Howe, a scarlet woman, was accidently killed in the Fernandes saloon at Springfield yesterday by John Rapps, a well-known fireman on the Wabash road. The pair were intimate and Stella was trying to get John to come out of the sulcon, when he gave her a push which sent her against the wall. She fell to the floor and died in a few moments, Rapps went for a doctor and then gave himself up to the police. He is in jail. This is the third tragedy Springfield has had wi hin a few days.

"Bluebeard, Jr.," the acme burlesque and dazzing spectacular performance, as given at the Grand last night, is by far the best show of the kind Decatur has ever had. You have seen the pictures and bills. Everything is given in full with surprising embellishments and stage effects, bewildering in frequency and elaborate in beauty. It seems there are over 100 people connected with the production. The hall was crowded. It was remarked that there were more people present than when the Grand was dedicated. The leading characters in Blueband. beard, are that prince of comedians, Edwin Poy, Miss Murrilla, Miss Johnston, Miss Reeves, Mr. Flint, Joseph Ott as Mujti, and Miss Deaves. The performance entire will be repeated to night. The production is given on the large stage with the same effects as in the larger cities. There are nearly 50 drops.

B. Winebrenner, died this morning at Funeral of the Late Mrs. Dr. Roberts from the Residence.

> ly sympathy and benevolence had made her a favorite in many homes of the city. Touching testimonials of sympathy and floral tributes and in many acts of kindwords. The service was in charge of Rev. W. H. Penhallegon, of the Presbyterian church. It was brief but very impressive and the remarks of the clergymen were well chosen throughout. After general remarks the minister said: "No eulogy is necessary to be spoken over our deceased friend. She has been preaching her funeral sermon for the last thirty years. She is known for her symmetrical Christian character and her patient fortitude in suffering. Her death seems a fitting close to her life; quietly, peacefully as the tired child leans its head upon its mother's bosom and sleeps, so she without any seeming pain or struggle 'leaned upon the arm of the beloved' and passed to her reward." To the numerous friends present he said: "No words of mine should beguile you from a loss so great and overwhelming, but I cannot refrain from offering to you the cousolstion that may be found in the fact that she was universally beloved while she lived and is universally regretted now that she is gone, and from the further fact that she died as she had lived in the faith of Christ." The choir comprised the Misses Anna Berry and Clara Evman. D. L. Bunn and Ralph Templeton. The selections were: "Thy Will be Done." "Come Ye Disconsolate" and a hymn,

"Gretchen," the play in which Miss theatre goers, although it was produced nearly thirty years ago. "Gretchen" is one of W. S. Gilbert's first creations and shows his rugged genius in every line. The play was originally produced by Henry Irving at the Lyceum Theatre in London, Ellen Terry appearing in the title role. The play was a great success and had a long successful run. But as the part of Gretchen is so much stronger than that of Mephistopoles, Mr. Irving did not like the play, consequently the piece was withdrawn from the boards During the last twenty years numerous actors have essayed the role, but none with the success that has attended Miss Mather's production. "Gretchen" now occupies a favorite place in Miss Mather's

Gyp has been in the advertising business a year. She would never have thought of entering such a public life if the Idea had not been suggested to her by the black eved boy who is her master They did a great many tricks together and when Gyp learned to smoke reight dealer back in Chiveland offered to en gage herservices. The dealer offered $10 a week, and Gyp an liber mister signed a contract, and her first, engagement, was speedily begin the boy acting as Gyps manager—It was a success and Gyp ap peared—here in Omaha at the end of her season. She wore ablue costume then and the white letters on her cont or habit as let young manager oalls it exhibited the virtues of a certain brand weather but shors ver particular about fulfilling her contract which calls for six hours walking every div-three hour in the morning and three in the after noon. She confines has promenades to the principal streets and she is often times innoved by the crowds which gather iround her. But being very denure in la lt possessed she refuses to linger where she can overhear the 1e marks of passers by Once or twice she ias been in irtified by brusque commands to more on from policemen who did not appear to recognize genius—even when it was so well defined as in Gyp's

SHE'S ONE OF THE 400 Gyp is naturally haughty. She is very proud of her satin habit and with frue eminine principe berts all the discomorts of fine ittine without a single whim of impatience. Oftentimes the wind blows her coat about her feet and her flixen bings slip over her eyes. Besides her alieses pinch her nose and she be comes very tired of the eigarette. Yet all artistes who appear in public and calmly accept the homage of the multi tude suffer more or less and why should dog be exempt from any of the draw backs that beset an actor's career'

Gyp does 1 of notice other dogs and ab olutely refuses to in the their acquaint As a tule her showy costum amazes them and they stand and look at her afar off, now and then expressing their canno astonishment in low deci growls - Iky Omaha's Bohemian dog--Iky who has associated with lawyers antil his assurance is the despair of every well behave I dog in the town-tried to join Gyp in her daily promenade, but although Iky had copied many of the manners and much of the address of certain lawvers in the Sheely and Payton blocks. Ikv was ignominiously snubbed

Moreover (exp can talk When she was asked about Om tha she expressed the utmost confidence in its future by removing her toque and bark ing half a dozen times in the most en husiastic manner. She had no definite printed about the school bonds but ap eared to have rather inelancholy recol ections of her own education. She was quite voluble when Dr. Millers name vas mentioned. Di Miller had spoken Gyp on the street and said he thought t was a shame for a poor dog to be compelled to wear blasses and smoke cigar ettes all dav long. But Gyp only sat up with her fore feet crossed in a very graceful manner, looked at him kindly brough her spectacles, and then moved along lown Sixteenth street. Om the World Herald
